

Free, Interactive Digital Decisions Webcast on Channel Election and Repacking with Key FCC Staff

November 4, 2004 • 1:30 – 3:30 p.m. ET

Pre-registration is required at

<http://www.tvworldwide.com/events/nab/dtv>

Big decisions about your DTV future need to be made and time is running out. FCC staff and our panel of experts will have useful information on today's most pressing DTV issues and will answer your email questions live at info@tvworldwide.com. You won't even have to leave your office.

- Get ready for the all-important Form 381 deadline.
- Have you decided to Maximize or Replicate, or something in between?
- What does the Channel Election timeline mean to you?
- Learn how new FCC requirements affect on-air branding and more.

This free, interactive webcast is a must-see for group executives, station management, and industry consultants. This may be your last chance to receive up-to-the-minute information that you will need to confirm or reevaluate your DTV strategy before the first FCC deadlines. Let NAB and MSTV streamline your DTV decisions with help from FCC staff and our expert panel in a format that won't waste your time.

Sign up today, you don't have time to wait!

For further information, contact David Donovan at ddonovan@mstv.org.

###